General Flexicore® Cable with Male and Female Connector

Sectional Cables

Sections for Model 88 and Rodrunner come in the all-purpose Flexichain which has a chain center, a stiffer Proflex which has a spring center, and a hollow style. Choose from three coupling styles. They snap together in a second and are taken apart quickly with a spanner wrench or uncoupling key. With the more recently developed "G" connector, no torque is put on the locking pin when running in reverse, making it a durable coupling.
